

ADVENTISTS KEEP SATURDAY HOLY

Four Thousand Believers, in Attendance at Conference, Observe the Day.

MANY VISITORS HERE

Day Is Devoted to Special Services Conducted by High Men in the Church.

The sacred hours of the Sabbath were observed yesterday with impressive solemnity by 4,000 Seventh-day Adventists in attendance at their world's conference, which is convened in a twenty-four day session at Takoma Park.

In addition to the 2,000 people who are encamped upon the grounds of the Washington Foreign Mission Seminary who have come from all parts of the earth to be in regular attendance at this conference, there were about 1,000 who came in for the Sabbath services from nearby States.

The observance of the Sabbath began with an opening-Sabbath service at the going down of the sun Friday night, at which time, in harmony with the teaching of the Bible, Seventh-day Adventists begin their observance of the day.

At 6 o'clock yesterday morning the campers were called from their tents to early morning worship by the ringing of a bell before breakfast.

This meeting continued until the ringing of a bell calling them to breakfast in the big, white dining tent, which is operated on the cafeteria plan, and which strictly vegetarian meals are served.

God Manifest in the Flesh.

After breakfast the campers gathered again in the assembly tent for Sabbath School, at 9 o'clock, which was conducted by Elder George H. Thompson, secretary of the Sabbath School department of the general conference.

The review of the previous Sabbath's lesson, the great audience was divided into numerous classes and teachers were appointed to take charge of these classes.

Among the large number of Bible teachers who are on the grounds.

The Sabbath School lesson was upon the subject, "God Manifest in the Flesh." University and of Christ, and many Scripture passages were brought out in the lesson yesterday substantiating this belief.

At the close of the study of the lesson, a few remarks were made concerning the custom of the Sabbath School offerings to missions, after which the Sabbath School offering was taken, and which will be devoted to foreign mission enterprises.

At the Sabbath morning preaching service, which followed the Sabbath School, Elder L. H. Evans, of Shantchi, China, president of the General Conference for the Asiatic division, delivered a powerful sermon, in which he told of the power of the message of Christ's soon return to this earth, the meeting of the church, and the coming of the Lord.

A strong appeal was made by Elder Evans for every person in the great audience to definitely forsake their sins and open their hearts to the sweep of the spirit of God, as the appeal was made, a wave of religious fervor swept over the entire camp.

After dinner the campers again assembled in the large pavilion to attend another preaching service, at which the sermon was delivered by Elder E. E. Andrews, of Oakland, Cal., the president of the Pacific union conference of Seventh-day Adventists, which also partook of a strong revival character.

This interesting Sabbath service was brought to end at the going down of the sun by a closing Sabbath service in which praise and gratitude were rendered to the Creator for the blessing of the day.

Conditions in Russia.

Instead of the regular preaching service last night, the campers were taken on an interesting trip through the conferences and mission stations of Russia by means of a stenographic lecture on that field by Elder J. T. Boettcher, of Riga, Russia, president of the Russian Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

He told some of the hardships which Seventh-day Adventists workers have had to meet in their operations in the Russian field, stating that it was against the law of Russia for members of any church to change their church affiliation to another denomination.

Without the change was in effect the fold of the Greek Orthodox Church, which is the established church of Russia. Notwithstanding the great obstacles which Seventh-day Adventist missionaries there have had to contend against, the work has grown from a small beginning until the mighty Russian empire, with its barriers of intolerance and bigotry, fostered by a state and church has been entered and its people are hearing the message of the Lord's return.

Elder Boettcher said that one union conference, one mission station, with its 25 churches, and 2,000 believers in Russia tell their tale of love and loyalty.

Today the regular business sessions of the conference will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. For the first time during the conference the early morning devotional service will be divided into sections, and the worshippers will assemble in different tents. Elder J. N. Lough-
